

The Nordic Baltic 2018 Food & Nutrition Initiative on how to take advantage of digitization and research infrastructure thinking

A Research Infrastructure for Food, Nutrition & Health
- in my country, in Europe or both?

Address: Tieteiden talo, Kirkkokatu 6, Helsinki (room 309)

Tuesday June 19th 9.00 – 15.30

Agenda:

9.00 -9.15 Coffee

9.15 – 10.00 Welcome and introductions, Research manager Teija Rautiainen, South Eastern Finland University of Applied Sciences

10.00 -10.20 The ESFRI and national roadmaps for research infrastructures in Finland, Science Adviser Merja Särkioja, Academy of Finland

10.20 – 10.45 Why do we need a Research Infrastructure for Food, Nutrition & Health? Karin L. Zimmermann, Research manager Research Infrastructures and senior researcher. Wageningen University & Research, coordinator of the FNHRI

10.45 – 11.55 How do you build an alliance and consensus around the idea of a Research Infrastructure? Experiences from Denmark. Bent Egberg Mikkelsen Aalborg University, Professor, Department of Clinical Medicine, Copenhagen

Lunch

Afternoon session 12.30 – 15.30

- What are the needs from stakeholders in Finland. Interactive break out session. Three tracks: research, industry, retail/foodservice
- Whats in it for me as a stakeholder. Break out sessions. Interactive World café format
  - Research and university
  - Government and agencies
  - Retail/foodservice
  - Manufacturing
- Plenary feed back from break out sessions
- Next steps

